NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Starco Brands, Inc. ("STCB", "Company", "we", "us" or "our,") was incorporated in the State of Nevada on January 26, 2010, under the name Insynergy, Inc. On September 7, 2017, STCB filed an Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation to change the corporate name to Starco Brands, Inc. The Board of Directors ("Board") determined the change of STCB's name was in the best interests of the Company due to changes in its current and anticipated business operations.

On July 2, 2026, the Company formed Starco Manufacturing, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company ("Manufacturing Holdco"), and on July 6, 2026, the Company formed Starco Brands, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company ("Brands Holdco" and together with Manufacturing Holdco, the "Holdcos"). On July 6, 2026, the Company contributed 100% of the equity interests of The AOS Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("AOS"), Soylent Nutrition, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Soylent"), Skylar Body, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Skylar") and Whipshots Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Whipshots Holdings") held by the Company down to Brands Holdco in exchange for 100% of the equity interests of Brands Holdco (the "Contribution" and together with the formation of the Holdcos, the "Reorganization"). The Reorganization established a holding-company structure beneath the Company, was accounted for as a transaction between entities under common control at carryover basis and had no effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Acquisition History

Whipshots and Whipshots Holdings

During the third quarter of 2021, STCB formed two subsidiaries, Whipshots, LLC, a Wyoming limited liability company ("Whipshots LLC") and Whipshots Holdings, initially as Whipshots, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. Whipshots LLC was a wholly-owned subsidiary of STCB at formation which was subsequently contributed to Whipshots Holdings. Whipshots Holdings was a majority-owned subsidiary of STCB in which STCB owned 85% of the vested voting interests, with vested interests not owned by STCB accounting for the additional 15% of the equity which has been issued. Following the Contribution, Brands Holdco owns 85% of the vested voting interests of Whipshots Holdings.

AOS

On September 12, 2022, STCB, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Starco Merger Sub Inc. ("Merger Sub"), completed its acquisition (the "AOS Acquisition") of AOS. The AOS Acquisition consisted of Merger Sub merging with and into AOS, with AOS being the surviving corporation. Following the Contribution, AOS is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Brands Holdco.

Skylar

On December 29, 2022, STCB, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Starco Merger Sub II. Inc. ("First Merger Sub") completed its acquisition (the "Skylar Acquisition") of Skylar Body, Inc. ("Skylar Inc."). The Skylar Acquisition consisted of First Merger Sub merging with and into Skylar Inc. ("First Merger") with Skylar Inc. being the surviving corporation, and immediately following the First Merger, and as part of the same overall transaction as the First Merger, Skylar Inc. merged with and into Second Merger Sub (the "Second Merger") with the Second Merger Sub being the surviving entity Skylar. Following the Contribution, Skylar is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Brands Holdco.

Soylent

On February 15, 2023, STCB, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Starco Merger Sub I, Inc. ("Starco Merger Sub I"), completed its acquisition (the "Soylent Acquisition") of Soylent. The Soylent Acquisition consisted of Starco Merger Sub I merging with and into Soylent, with Soylent being the surviving corporation. Following the Contribution, Soylent is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Brands Holdco.

Custom Foods

On July 15, 2026, STCB, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Manufacturing Holdco, completed its acquisition (the "Custom Foods Acquisition") of Custom Foods, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, doing business as Custom Bakehouse ("Custom Foods"). The Custom Foods Acquisition consisted of STCB acquiring all of the outstanding securities of Custom Foods for cash consideration. Custom Foods is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Starco Manufacturing. Custom Foods has two wholly-owned subsidiaries, International Commissary Corporation, a California Corporation, and SFB AcqCo, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company.

Organizational and Operational History

In July 2017, STCB entered into a licensing agreement with TSG, a related party entity, located in Los Angeles, California. The Company pivoted to commercializing novel consumer products manufactured by TSG. TSG is a private label and branded aerosol and liquid fill manufacturer with manufacturing assets in the following verticals: DIY/Hardware, paints, coatings and adhesives, household, hair care, disinfectants, automotive, motorcycle, arts & crafts, personal care cosmetics, personal care FDA, sun care, food, cooking oils, beverages, and spirits and wine.

On January 3, 2023, the Board approved the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of Starco Brands, Inc. (the "Amended and Restated Articles). On January 6, 2023, the stockholders of the Company representing 53.47% of the Company's outstanding common stock adopted the Amended and Restated Articles. On February 9, 2023, the Company filed the Amended and Restated Articles, which, among other things, (i) increased the authorized shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, from 300,000,000 shares (the "Old Common Stock") to 2,000,000,000 shares, (ii) established two classes of common stock, consisting of (y) 1,700,000,000 shares of Class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share ("Class A common stock"), and (z) 300,000,000 shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.001 per share and (iii) reclassified all issued, outstanding or authorized Old Common Stock of the Company into Class A common stock on a one-for-one basis. As a result, following the filing of the Amended and Restated Articles with the Nevada Secretary of State, the Company's prior "common stock" was renamed Class A common stock on its trading symbol. The authorized preferred stock, with a par value of $0.001 per share and totaling 40,000,000 shares, has remained unchanged.

NOTE 2 – GOING CONCERN

The Company has concluded that substantial doubt exists regarding its ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that these condensed consolidated financial statements are issued. The principal conditions giving rise to substantial doubt include the Company's history of recurring net losses. As of September 30, 2026, the Company reported an accumulated deficit of $107,072,932, net losses of $2,502,000 and $4,793,354 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, and working capital of approximately $2.4 million.

Management has evaluated the conditions that contributed to substantial doubt. The historical net losses and accumulated deficit are primarily attributable to non-cash or one-time, non-recurring expenses, including goodwill impairment, stock-based compensation, fair value share adjustment losses, and acquisition-related transaction costs.

As of September 30, 2026, total debt was approximately $20.9 million (net of unamortized debt issuance costs), which includes $3,472,500 in a note payable to Ross Sklar ("Sklar"), a significant minority shareholder, member of the Board and CEO of the Company. Of this amount, $1.0 million was funded in July and August 2025 in response to requests from the Company's prior lender. Mr. Sklar's ownership interest and operational role provide an incentive for him to be supportive of the Company regarding repayment of this note, consistent with prior periods.

On December 22, 2025, the Company entered into a Bridge Term Loan Promissory Note with The Starco Group, Inc. ("TSGI"), an entity wholly owned by Sklar, providing for up to $5,000,000 in borrowing capacity, including an initial disbursement of $4,500,000 (the "Bridge Loan"). The proceeds were used to repay the Company's then current revolving loan facility in full and to provide additional working capital. The Bridge Loan bears interest at a variable rate based on the Wall Street Journal Prime Rate plus an applicable margin, requires monthly interest payments which began on January 1, 2026, and provides for scheduled principal amortization beginning January 1, 2027. The Bridge Loan includes customary covenants and events of default and may be prepaid without penalty.

On July 15, 2026, the Company and each of its subsidiaries (including the newly acquired Custom Foods and its subsidiaries) entered into a secured credit facility with Pasadena Private Lending Inc. providing for term, accordion and revolving borrowings of up to $18.0 million, a portion of which was used to fund the acquisition of Custom Foods and to support working capital needs (see Note 6 – Notes Payable). This financing is primarily acquisition-related, is guaranteed and cross-collateralized, and contains financial covenants; accordingly, it does not eliminate the substantial doubt described above.

While the Bridge Loan and the Pasadena Private Lending facility have provided near-term liquidity, these actions do not eliminate the conditions that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's plans are not entirely within its control, and there can be no assurance that additional financing or operational improvements will be achieved as contemplated. The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of these uncertainties.

Management is pursuing additional financing sources to enhance liquidity, provide working capital, and support repayment of existing obligations, if necessary. Management is also focused on strategic initiatives intended to increase revenue in the most profitable sales channels and reduce overall expenses as a percentage of revenue. Operational synergies from the Company's shared services model and continued emphasis on profitable channels have contributed to improvements to date and are expected to continue.

NOTE 3 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Consolidation

The condensed consolidated financial statements of Starco Brands, Inc. include the accounts of STCB, our wholly-owned subsidiaries Brands Holdco and Manufacturing Holdco, our indirectly wholly-owned subsidiaries AOS, Skylar, Soylent, and Custom Foods and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, and our indirectly 85% owned subsidiary Whipshots Holdings and its wholly-owned subsidiary Whipshots LLC, which are comprised of voting interest entities in which we have a controlling financial interest in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 810, Consolidation. The results of Custom Foods and its wholly-owned subsidiaries are included from July 15, 2026, the date of acquisition. All significant intercompany profits, losses, transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation in the condensed consolidated financial statements.

Our condensed consolidated subsidiaries at September 30, 2026 include: Brands Holdco, Manufacturing Holdco, AOS, Skylar, Soylent, Custom Foods and its wholly owned subsidiaries International Commissary Corporation and SFB AcqCo, LLC, and Whipshots Holdings and its wholly owned subsidiary Whipshots LLC. Intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated upon consolidation.

Basis of Presentation

The condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") applicable to annual financial reporting. The condensed consolidated financial statements include all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation of the Company's financial position, results of operations, and cash flows for the periods presented. All such adjustments are of a normal, recurring nature unless otherwise disclosed.

The condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company do not contain certain information included in the Company's Annual Report and Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025. Therefore, the condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with that Annual Report on Form 10-K. Certain prior-period amounts in the condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. Specifically, cost of revenues from related parties has been reclassified into cost of revenues on the condensed consolidated statements of operations and within the segment information. These reclassifications had no impact on previously reported gross profit, total operating expenses, net loss, or stockholders' equity.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, equity-based transactions, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The Company bases its estimates and assumptions on current facts, historical experience, and various other factors that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. These estimates form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the recognition of costs and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ materially from those estimates, and such differences could affect future results of operations.

The Company believes the following critical accounting policies involve the most significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of the condensed consolidated financial statements: the timing of revenue recognition; testing goodwill and intangible assets for impairment; evaluating the recoverability of long-lived assets; estimating the allowance for doubtful accounts; estimating contingent consideration; determining the net realizable value of inventory; assessing the value of certain share-based adjustments; accounting for income taxes; and assumptions used in the Black-Scholes valuation model, including expected volatility, risk-free interest rate, and expected dividend rate.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, the balances of which may at times exceed federally insured limits. The Company monitors the creditworthiness of the financial institutions with which it maintains deposits and has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes the Company is not exposed to significant credit risk with respect to its cash balances.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. The Company did not have any cash equivalents as of September 30, 2026 or December 31, 2025.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at net realizable value, which includes an allowance for credit losses representing the amount expected to be uncollectible. The allowance for credit losses is estimated based on relevant available information, including historical loss experience, the aging of receivables, customer-specific information, and current and expected economic conditions. The allowance is evaluated quarterly. As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, accounts receivable, net were approximately $5,500,741 and $2,988,724, respectively. As of those dates, the allowance for credit losses was $5,590 and $223,867, respectively.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company follows ASC 825-10-50 for disclosures about the fair value of its financial instruments and ASC 820 for the framework used to measure fair value. ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in valuation techniques into three levels, giving the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs. The three (3) levels of fair value hierarchy defined by Paragraph 820-10-35-37 are described below:

Level 1: Quoted market prices available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date.

Level 2: Pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets included in Level 1, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date.

Level 3: Pricing inputs that are generally unobservable inputs and not corroborated by market data.

The carrying amounts of the Company's financial assets and liabilities, including cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, accounts payable and accrued expenses, approximate their fair values because of the short-term nature of these instruments. The Company's notes payable approximate fair value based on management's best estimate of the interest rates that would be available to the Company for similar financial arrangements as of September 30, 2026. The contingent consideration (earn-out) liability recognized in connection with the Custom Foods Acquisition is measured at fair value on a recurring basis using significant unobservable (Level 3) inputs. The fair value was $1,267,000 at the acquisition date and $1,298,000 as of September 30, 2026; the $31,000 increase was recognized as a fair value loss on contingent consideration in operating expenses. The fair value measurement is preliminary (see Note 5 – Acquisitions).

The following table summarizes the Level 3 rollforward:

	Amount (USD)
Balance, July 1, 2026 (Beginning)	$ -
Recognized at acquisition, July 15, 2026	1,267,000
Change in fair value recognized in earnings for contingent consideration	31,000
Balance, September 30, 2026	$ 1,298,000

The following table summarized the financial instruments of the Company at fair value based on the valuation approach applied to contingent liability related to earnout:

		Fair Value Measurement at Reporting Date Using
	Carrying Value at September 30, 2026	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Liabilities:
Fair Value of Contingent Liability Earn-Out	$ 1,298,000	$ -	$ -	$ 1,298,000
Total Liabilities	$ 1,298,000	$ -	$ -	$ 1,298,000

The contingent liability is classified at Level 3 due to the use of significant unobservable inputs to determine their fair value. The Company estimates fair value using a probability-weighted scenario analysis, which is an income approach.

Property and Equipment, net

Property and equipment are recorded at historical cost, net of depreciation; all property and equipment with a cost of $2,000 or greater are capitalized. Depreciation is computed using straight-line over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Expenditures that enhance the useful lives of the assets are capitalized and depreciated. Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Construction in progress ("CIP") relates to costs for assets under construction or development that are not yet ready for their intended use; such will be transferred to their appropriate asset category upon completion. When assets are sold or otherwise disposed of, the cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in operations.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Revenue is recognized when control of the promised goods or services transfers to the customer, in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services.

Product Sales (STCB, AOS, Skylar, Soylent, Custom Foods)

STCB, excluding its subsidiaries, earns a majority of its revenues through the sale of food products, primarily through Winona. AOS, Skylar, and Soylent, each wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company, generate revenue through the sale of premium body and skincare products, fragrances, and nutritional drinks, respectively. For these businesses:

- Retail sales are recognized when products are shipped to the retailer, which is the point at which control transfers.
- eCommerce sales, including those fulfilled through Amazon Fulfillment by Amazon ("Amazon FBA"), are recognized upon shipment of merchandise to the customer.

Custom Foods:

Custom Foods generates revenue through the sale manufacture and sale of food products. Its revenue is recognized upon shipment of finished goods to the customer, which is the point at which control transfers.

Licensing Revenue (Whipshots)

Whipshots, an indirect 85%-owned subsidiary, earns revenue from royalty-based licensing agreements with Temperance Distilling Company ("Temperance"), a related entity. Under these agreements, the Company licenses the right for Temperance to manufacture and sell vodka-infused whipped cream products. Royalty revenue varies based on contractual royalty rates and underlying product sales. Revenue is recognized when Temperance sells licensed products to third-party customers, as this is when the Company's performance obligation is satisfied and the amount of consideration is determinable.

ASC 606 Framework

In applying ASC 606, the Company evaluates contracts using the following five-step model:

1. Identify the contract with a customer.
2. Identify the performance obligations in the contract.
3. Determine the transaction price, including any variable consideration.
4. Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations.
5. Recognize revenue when (or as) performance obligations are satisfied.

The Company applies the five-step model only when collection of consideration is probable. Performance obligations are generally satisfied at a point in time, typically upon shipment or delivery, depending on when control transfers to the customer.

Income Taxes

The Company follows Section 740-10-30 of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification, which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the condensed consolidated financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the fiscal year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance to the extent management concludes it is more likely than not that the assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the fiscal years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the Statements of Income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company adopted section 740-10-25 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("Section 740-10-25") with regards to uncertainty income taxes. Section 740-10-25 addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the condensed consolidated financial statements. Under Section 740-10-25, the Company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the condensed consolidated financial statements from such a position should be measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent (50%) likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Section 740-10-25 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, accounting in interim periods and requires increased disclosures. The Company had no material adjustments to its liabilities for unrecognized income tax benefits according to the provisions of Section 740-10-25.

Stock-based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation per the provisions of ASC 718, Share-based Compensation ("ASC 718"), which requires the use of the fair-value based method to determine compensation for all arrangements under which employees and others receive shares of stock or equity instruments (warrants, options, and restricted stock units). The fair value of each warrant and option is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model that uses assumptions for expected volatility, expected dividends, expected term, and the risk-free interest rate. The Company has not paid dividends historically and does not expect to pay them in the future. Expected volatility is based on the volatility of comparable companies' common stock. The expected term of awards granted is derived using estimates based on the specific terms of each award. The risk-free rate is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant for the period of the expected term. The grant date fair value of a restricted stock unit equals the closing price of our Class A common stock on the trading day of the grant date.

Net Loss Per Common Share

Net loss per share of common stock is computed by dividing net loss attributable to Starco Brands, Inc. by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. All outstanding options are considered potential common stock. The dilutive effect, if any, of stock payable, options and warrants is calculated using the treasury stock method. Any outstanding convertible notes are considered common stock at the beginning of the period or at the time of issuance, if later, pursuant to the if-converted method.

The Company reported a net loss attributable to Starco Brands for each of the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025; accordingly, the effect of common stock equivalents was anti-dilutive and such equivalents have been excluded from the computation of diluted net loss per share, resulting in basic and diluted net loss per share being equal.

The following table summarizes the securities that were excluded from the diluted per-share computation for the periods presented because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive:

	Three Months Ended September 30,
	2026	2025
Warrants	40,816,379	38,341,664
Stock options	4,425,000	5,540,000
Total	45,241,379	43,881,664

	Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2026	2025
Warrants	40,816,379	38,341,664
Stock options	4,425,000	5,540,000
Total	45,241,379	43,881,664

Intangible Assets

Definite-lived intangible assets consist of certain domain names, trademarks, and trade names. These assets are amortized using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, which range from approximately 10 to 16 years.

Indefinite-lived intangible assets consist of certain trade names and trademarks. These assets are not amortized but are tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it is more likely than not that the asset is impaired.

The Company evaluates its long-lived assets for potential impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be recoverable. Indicators of impairment include, among other factors, current-period operating or cash flow losses combined with a history of such losses, forecasts demonstrating continuing losses or insufficient income, significant changes in the manner in which an asset is used, or adverse industry or economic trends. Recoverability is assessed by comparing the carrying amount of the asset or asset group to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to result from its use. If the carrying amount exceeds the undiscounted cash flows, an impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the carrying value exceeds the estimated fair value, determined using the best information available and consistent with ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, the Company did not record asset impairment charges related to its intangible assets.

Royalties and Licenses

Royalty-based obligations with content licensors are either paid in advance and capitalized as prepaid royalties or are accrued as incurred and subsequently paid. These royalty-based obligations are generally expensed to cost of revenue at the greater of the contractual royalty rate or an effective royalty rate based on total projected net revenue for contracts with guaranteed minimums. Prepayments are typically made in connection with the development of a particular product and therefore expose the Company to risk during the development phase. Royalty payments earned after completion of the product are expensed as cost of revenue.

Certain licensing agreements include minimum guaranteed royalty payments. When no further performance remains with the licensor, such minimum guarantees are recorded as an asset and a liability at the contractual amount upon execution of the agreement. When performance obligations remain with the licensor, minimum guarantees are recorded as an asset when paid and as a liability when incurred.

The Company evaluates the expected future realization of royalty-based assets each quarter, including any unrecognized minimum commitments, to identify amounts unlikely to be recovered through future revenue. Impairments or losses identified post-launch are charged to cost of revenue. Long-lived royalty-based assets are evaluated for impairment using undiscounted cash flows when impairment indicators exist. If impairment is indicated, the assets are written down to fair value. Unrecognized minimum royalty commitments are accounted for as executory contracts, and losses are recognized when the underlying intellectual property is abandoned or the contractual rights to use the intellectual property are terminated.

Minimum contractual royalty-based obligations outstanding as of September 30, 2026 are approximately $20,000 for each of the years ending December 31, 2026, 2027, and 2028.

Leases

The Company accounts for leases in accordance with ASC 842, Leases. Operating leases are recognized on the condensed consolidated balance sheet as Right-of-Use (“ROU”) assets and corresponding lease liabilities. ROU assets include prepaid lease payments and exclude lease incentives and initial direct costs. Lease expense for minimum lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise such options.

On May 1, 2024, the Company entered into a three-year operating lease agreement (the “Citrus Lease”) with Ralks Corporation, a related-party lessor (see Note 9). The lease covers approximately 3,000 square feet located at 706 N. Citrus Ave., Los Angeles, California, with monthly base rent of $10,000 and annual increases of 5%. The lease includes an option to renew for an additional three years with notice required 90 days prior to the end of the term.

In connection with the acquisition, on July 15, 2026, the Company assumed a lease agreement (the “Custom Foods Lease”) with Best California Gas, Ltd. The lease was amended pursuant to the fifth amendment on June 1, 2026. The lease covers approximately 43,843 square feet located at 14715 Anson Street, Santa Fe Springs, California. The amendment extended the lease term by 63 months, from June 1, 2026 through August 31, 2031. Monthly base rent is $50,419, with annual increases of approximately 3.5%, and base rent was abated for July through September 2026. The Company is also responsible for its share of building and common area operating expenses. The lease does not include an option to renew or terminate early.

In accordance with ASC 842, the Company recognized an ROU asset and corresponding lease liability for its long-term office leases. See Note 12 – Leases for additional information.

Inventory

Inventory consists of premium body and skincare products, fragrances and nutritional products and, following the Custom Foods Acquisition, powdered food raw materials and packaging, work in process and finished powdered food mixes. Inventory is measured and stated at average cost as of September 30, 2026. The carrying value of inventory is reduced for excess or obsolete items. The Company monitors inventory levels and usage to identify indicators of obsolescence and adjusts inventory values when necessary. The Company did not record any inventory impairment losses for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 or 2025.

Acquisitions, Intangible Assets and Goodwill

The condensed consolidated financial statements reflect the operations of an acquired business beginning on the date of acquisition. Assets acquired and liabilities assumed are recorded at their fair values as of the acquisition date, and goodwill is recognized for any excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net assets acquired. Significant judgment is required in determining the fair value of certain tangible and intangible assets and in assigning their respective useful lives. The Company typically engages third-party valuation specialists to assist in valuing significant tangible and intangible assets.

Fair value measurements are based on available historical information and on future expectations and assumptions deemed reasonable by management, although such estimates are inherently uncertain. The Company generally employs an income approach to measure the fair value of intangible assets, which relies on forecasts of expected future cash flows attributable to the respective assets. Significant estimates and assumptions inherent in these valuations include the amount and timing of future cash flows (including expected growth rates and profitability), product or technology life cycles, economic barriers to entry, and the discount rate applied to the cash flows. Determining the useful life of an intangible asset also requires judgment. Definite-lived intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives. Intangible assets associated with acquired in-process research and development ("IPR&D") are not amortized until the related product is available for sale.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of consideration transferred over the fair value of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the acquisition date. Although management uses its best estimates and assumptions to value assets acquired and liabilities assumed, these estimates are inherently uncertain and subject to refinement.

The Company reviews goodwill for impairment at least annually, or more frequently if indicators of impairment exist. The goodwill impairment test may require the use of qualitative assessments and fair-value techniques, both of which involve significant judgment. An impairment loss is recognized when the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount.

No impairment losses related to goodwill were recognized for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025. As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, goodwill was $16,234,026 and $11,234,312, respectively. The increase reflects preliminary goodwill of $4,999,714 recognized in connection with the Custom Foods Acquisition (see Note 5 – Acquisitions).

Segments

Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise for which separate financial information is available and that are evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM") in allocating resources and assessing performance. The Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") serves as the CODM. The CEO reviews the Company's operations and manages the business through six reportable operating segments: (i) AOS, (ii) Skylar, (iii) Soylent, (iv) Whipshots, (v) Winona, and (vi) Starco Manufacturing. Parent-level corporate activities are presented as "Corporate" and reconcile reportable segment results to consolidated results. The CODM evaluates segment performance and allocates resources based primarily on revenues, revenues from related parties, gross profit and income (loss) from operations.

Effective January 1, 2026, the Company discontinued the elective aggregation of operating segments previously combined within the Starco Brands reportable segment because the operating margins of those operating segments are no longer expected to converge over time as previously anticipated, increasing the Company's reportable segments from three to five, with parent-level corporate activities presented separately as Corporate. Following the Custom Foods Acquisition on July 15, 2026, the Company added Starco Manufacturing as a sixth reportable segment. Segment information for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 has been recast to conform to the current-period presentation. See Note 4 – Segments for additional information regarding the change and related disclosures.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

The Company evaluates the applicability and impact of all Accounting Standards Updates ("ASUs") issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. Management has reviewed all newly issued but not yet effective accounting pronouncements and determined that none are expected to have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 4 – SEGMENTS

Effective January 1, 2026, the Company changed the composition of its reportable segments by discontinuing the elective aggregation of operating segments previously combined within the Starco Brands reportable segment. Aggregation under ASC 280 is permitted but not required, and the Company has determined to discontinue the previously applied aggregation because the operating margins of the previously aggregated operating segments are no longer expected to converge over time as previously anticipated.

As a result, effective January 1, 2026, the Company presented five reportable operating segments: AOS, Skylar, Soylent, Whipshots, and Winona. Following the Custom Foods Acquisition on July 15, 2026, the Company presents six reportable operating segments: AOS, Skylar, Soylent, Whipshots, Winona, and Starco Manufacturing. Parent-level corporate activities are presented as "Corporate" and reconcile reportable segment results to consolidated results. Previously, the Company reported three reportable segments: Starco Brands (which included the activities of the parent platform, AOS, Whipshots, and Winona), Skylar, and Soylent. Segment information for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 has been recast to conform to the current-period segment presentation.

The Company's reportable segments are described below:

Skylar. The Skylar segment generates revenue through the sale of hypoallergenic fragrance products under the Skylar brand.

Soylent. The Soylent segment generates revenue through the sale of plant-based nutritional products, including ready-to-drink shakes, powders, and bars, under the Soylent brand.

AOS. The AOS segment generates revenue through the sale of premium body and skincare products designed for athletes under the Art of Sport brand.

Whipshots. The Whipshots segment earns its revenues as royalties from licensing arrangements with Temperance, a related party, under which Temperance manufactures and sells vodka-infused whipped cream products under the Whipshots® brand. The Whipshots segment includes Whipshots Holdings and Whipshots LLC.

Winona. The Winona segment generates revenue through the sale of popcorn spray and sauce spray products under the Winona Pure® brand. Winona operates as a division of STCB, which is the marketer of record under a licensing arrangement with the brand owner. The Company is the principal in arrangements with end customers. Winona products are sold through retail partners including Walmart, H-E-B, Meijer, and Food Lion, and on Amazon through the Company's strategic partner Pattern (formerly iServe), which is a stockholder of the Company.

Starco Manufacturing. The Starco Manufacturing segment consists of Custom Foods and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, which were acquired on July 15, 2026. Custom Foods develops, blends, manufactures, packages and sells dry mix food products, including baking, beverage and seasoning mixes.

Corporate. Corporate consists of the activities of Starco Brands, Inc., the publicly traded parent legal entity, including executive management, public-company costs, professional services, platform-level marketing and administration, and other expenses incurred at the parent level that are not allocated to the reportable segments. Corporate is not an operating segment.

The Company's Chief Executive Officer, Ross Sklar, is the Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM"). The CODM reviews balance sheet data on a consolidated basis; therefore, disaggregated balance sheet data are not presented.

The measures the CODM uses to evaluate segment performance and allocate resources among the Company's product lines - revenues, revenues from related parties, gross profit, and income (loss) from operations – are consistent with the measures disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025. The Company's revised segment presentation reflects an increased level of disaggregation of these measures, consistent with the change in management approach described above.

Profit or Loss Measures

- Revenues
- Revenues – related parties
- Gross profit
- Income (loss) from operations

The CODM uses these measures, together with the underlying components of cost of revenues and operating expenses (including marketing and sales spend), to assess the effectiveness of resource allocation decisions among the Company's segments. For example, the CODM evaluates the effectiveness of marketing and sales spend initiatives by reference to corresponding changes in segment revenue and gross profit contribution in order to determine whether to direct additional marketing investment to a given segment or to redirect investment elsewhere. The disaggregated presentation of segment results also enables the CODM to assess each segment's contribution to the consolidated enterprise.

The following expense categories are regularly provided to the CODM, included in the reported measures of segment profit or loss, and are significant quantitatively or qualitatively. These categories are consistent with those disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025:

Significant Expense Categories

- Cost of revenues
- Compensation expense
- Professional fees
- Marketing, general and administrative expenses
- Fair value share adjustment gain/loss
- Goodwill impairment
- Transaction costs
- Intangibles impairment

The following tables present gross profit (loss) and significant expenses by reportable segment. Corporate is presented as a reconciling column and is not a reportable segment. Transaction costs incurred in connection with the Custom Foods Acquisition are presented within Corporate:

For the nine months ended September 30, 2025, the Company had one customer that represented 10% or more of consolidated revenues: Customer A at approximately 27%, contributing approximately $9.0 million of revenue reported within the Soylent segment.

Products and Services. The Company's reportable segments are organized by product line, and each segment represents a discrete group of similar products or, in the case of Whipshots, a discrete royalty revenue stream. Accordingly, the segment revenue information presented above also reflects the disaggregation of revenues by product group, and no separate product-level revenue disclosure is required.

NOTE 5 – ACQUISITIONS

On July 15, 2026, the Company through its wholly owned subsidiary, Manufacturing HoldCo, acquired 100% of the membership interests of Custom Foods, LLC, doing business as Custom Bakehouse (the "Custom Foods Acquisition"). The acquisition was undertaken to expand the Company's manufacturing capabilities, strengthen its private-label and branded food product platform, and broaden its customer relationships. The results of Custom Foods have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements beginning July 15, 2026, the acquisition date.

Custom Foods develops, blends, manufactures, packages and sells dry mix food products, including baking, beverage and seasoning mixes, through proprietary brands, private-label arrangements and co-packing relationships. The acquisition is being accounted for as a business combination under ASC 805 using the acquisition method of accounting.

The following table summarizes the consideration transferred and preliminary assessment of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the acquisition date:

		July 15, 2026
Consideration transferred:
Cash paid at closing to settle obligations of the sellers	$	3,190,186
Cash paid to the sellers at closing		4,857,211
Contingent consideration (earn-out), fair value		1,267,000
Total consideration	$	9,314,397
Assets acquired and liabilities assumed:
Cash	$	47,272
Accounts receivable		1,303,036
Prepaid expenses and other assets		150,495
Inventory		2,962,597
Property and equipment		304,067
Intangibles		2,000,000
Operating lease right-of-use asset		2,457,416
Accounts payable		(1,657,859)
Other payables and accrued liabilities		(794,925)
Operating lease liability		(2,457,416)
Net assets acquired	$	4,314,683
Goodwill		4,999,714
Total	$	9,314,397

The excess of the consideration transferred over the preliminary fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired was recorded as goodwill. Goodwill primarily reflects the expected synergies from integrating Custom Food's manufacturing capabilities and customer relationships with the Company's existing operations, as well as the value of the assembled workforce and future growth opportunities. Goodwill is expected to be assigned to the Company's manufacturing reporting unit.

The purchase agreement provides for additional cash consideration of up to $2.5 million based on achievement of specified 2027 net revenue targets of the acquired business. No payment is required if specified revenue thresholds are not achieved, and the maximum payment is earned upon achievement of the maximum revenue target. The Company has preliminarily estimated the acquisition-date fair value of the contingent consideration obligation at $1,267,000 and recorded the obligation as a non-current liability. Because the arrangement is payable solely in cash, it is classified as a liability and will be remeasured to fair value at each reporting date, with changes in fair value recognized in earnings until the contingency is resolved. As of September 30, 2026, the fair value of the contingent consideration was $1,298,000, and the increase of $31,000 was recognized as a fair value loss on contingent consideration for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026.

The purchase accounting remains preliminary because the Company is in the request for proposal stage for potential valuation specialists. Specifically, the valuation of identifiable intangible assets, inventory, property and equipment, contingent consideration, lease assumptions, deferred income taxes and certain working capital balances has not been finalized as of September 30, 2026. Accordingly, the Company may record measurement period adjustments during the one-year period following the acquisition date in accordance with ASC 805. Such adjustments could be material and may result in changes to the amounts allocated to identifiable assets acquired, liabilities assumed and goodwill.

As part of the acquisition, the Company assumed an operating lease for the acquired manufacturing facility located in Santa Fe Springs, California. At the acquisition date, the Company recognized an operating lease right-of-use asset and corresponding lease liability of approximately $2.5 million in accordance with ASC 805 and ASC 842.

For the period from July 15, 2026 through September 30, 2026, Custom Foods contributed revenue of $5,770,450 and net income of $649,448, which are included in the condensed consolidated statements of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026. The Company incurred acquisition-related costs of $485,609 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, which are presented as transaction costs in the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

The following unaudited pro forma financial information presents the consolidated results of operations of Starco Brands, Inc. as if the Custom Foods, LLC acquisition had occurred on January 1, 2025. The unaudited pro forma information includes adjustments that management believes are directly attributable to the acquisition and factually supportable, including adjustments for acquisition financing, depreciation and amortization, and related purchase accounting effects. The unaudited pro forma information is presented for informational purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the results of operations that would have been achieved had the acquisition occurred on the date indicated, nor is it indicative of future operating results.

Gibraltar Loan and Security Agreement – Revolving Loan

As of September 30, 2026, the Company did not have any outstanding borrowings under the Loan and Security Agreement with Gibraltar Business Capital, LLC (the "Gibraltar Loan"). The Company fully repaid all obligations under the Gibraltar Loan in December 2025, and the agreement, including the related forbearance arrangements, was terminated at that time. There was no activity related to the Gibraltar Loan during the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

Pasadena Private Lending Credit Facility

On July 15, 2026, the Company and each of its subsidiaries entered into a Loan Agreement with Pasadena Private Lending Inc. providing for an $11.0 million initial term loan, a $4.0 million accordion term-loan feature, and a $3.0 million line of credit (the "Pasadena Private Lending facility"). The term loan bears interest at an initial rate of Prime + 5.5% and matures on July 15, 2031, with monthly principal payments beginning in August 2027 and ranging from $69,000 to $160,000 per month. Borrowings under the line of credit bear interest at an initial rate of Prime + 5.5%, with an unused line fee of 1.0% per annum, payable monthly and the revolving line of credit matures on July 15, 2028. The obligations are cross-collateralized and secured by substantially all assets of the borrowers with pledges of equity interests of the Company's securities and are further guaranteed by the Company's Chief Executive Officer and certain family trusts. The Pasadena Private Lending facility contains customary affirmative and negative covenants and financial covenants, including a maximum senior debt-to-EBITDA ratio of 3.00 to 1.00 and a minimum fixed-charge coverage ratio of 2.00 to 1.00, tested quarterly. The Company paid a $220,000 funding fee at closing in addition to lender and borrower costs of $189,815, which were accounted for as a debt issuance cost. Proceeds of the term loan were used to fund the Custom Foods Acquisition and provide for working capital. As of September 30, 2026, $11.0 million was outstanding under the term loan and $2.7 million was outstanding under the line of credit, with $4.3 million of remaining availability. As of September 30, 2026, the Company was in compliance with all financial and non-financial covenants.

On September 1, 2026 pursuant to July 15, 2026 Credit Facility the Company issued a warrant to Pasadena Private Lending Inc. to purchase 16,003,878 shares of the Company's Class A common stock at an exercise price of $0.11 per share. The warrant was fully vested upon issuance and expires on August 31, 2036. The warrant was issued as consideration associated with the financing arrangement and was accounted for as a debt issuance cost with a corresponding credit to additional paid-in capital. The Company determined that the warrant met the equity-classification requirements. The grant-date fair value of the warrant was approximately $392,301 and is being amortized as additional interest expense over the term of the related debt.

Notes Payable – Related Parties

As of September 30, 2026, the Company had outstanding related-party indebtedness consisting of (i) an Amended and Restated Secured Convertible Promissory Note with Ross Sklar (the "CEO Note") and (ii) a Bridge Term Loan Promissory Note with The Starco Group, Inc. (the "Bridge Loan"). Both arrangements are considered related-party transactions and are subordinated to the Company's senior lending arrangements pursuant to subordination agreements entered into in connection with the Company's July 2026 financing activities.

CEO Note

On July 15, 2026, the Company and its CEO, Ross Sklar, entered into an Amended and Restated Secured Convertible Promissory Note that amended and restated the Company's previously outstanding secured promissory note with Mr. Sklar. The amendment retained the outstanding principal balance of approximately $3.5 million, continued the existing collateral package, and provided Mr. Sklar with the right to convert outstanding principal, accrued interest, and certain other amounts into shares of the Company's Class A common stock at a conversion price of $0.04 per share. The amendment also extended the contractual term of the borrowing and subordinated it to the Pasadena Private Lending Facility.

The Company evaluated the amendment under ASC 470-50. Because the amendment added a substantive conversion option, it is considered substantial and was accounted for as an extinguishment. The Company determined that the embedded conversion feature of the Restated Note is equity-classified and is not bifurcated as a derivative liability under ASC 815. Accordingly, the Restated Note had no related gain/loss upon extinguishment.

Interest on the Sklar Note accrues at the Wall Street Journal Prime Rate plus 2.0% per annum and is payable monthly. The note matures on March 31, 2030, subject to certain extension provisions contained in the agreement.

See Note 9 for further information on loans to STCB from the Company's CEO.

Bridge Loan

The Company also has a related-party Bridge Loan with The Starco Group, Inc., originally entered into on December 22, 2025. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company repaid $200,000 of principal under the Bridge Loan. The Bridge Loan remains outstanding as of September 30, 2026 and is subordinated to the Company's senior lending arrangements.

At September 30, 2026, related-party notes payable was classified between current and noncurrent portions based on their contractual terms.

NOTE 7 – OTHER PAYABLES AND ACCRUED LIABILITIES

Other payables and accrued liabilities consist of the following:

	September 30, 2026	December 31, 2025
Accrued compensation	$ 658,490	$ 7,371
Accrued royalties	1,650,000	1,650,000
Deferred revenue	551,614	683,782
Trade payable	1,011,816	914,085
Goods received pending invoice	994,592	612,854
Other accrued expenses	1,689,733	512,353
Total	$ 6,556,245	$ 4,380,445

These liabilities represent obligations incurred as of the reporting date but not yet paid; accrued compensation includes wages and bonuses earned by employees, and accrued royalties include royalty payments that are potentially owed but not yet paid. Deferred revenue is for amounts received but not yet earned, primarily related to gift card liabilities and loyalty rewards obligations, and trade payables consist of amounts owed to suppliers for goods or services purchased. Other accrued expenses primarily consist of operational costs incurred but not yet invoiced.. The contingent consideration related to the Custom Foods Acquisition is presented separately as a noncurrent liability (see Note 5 – Acquisitions).

NOTE 8 – COMMITMENTS & CONTINGENCIES

The Company is not currently involved in any legal proceedings that, in management's opinion, would have a material adverse effect on its financial position, results of operations, or cash flows. The Company regularly evaluates contingencies to determine the probability and estimability of potential losses in accordance with ASC 450, Contingencies. As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the Company had no accruals recorded for loss contingencies, as it was not a defendant in any claims or legal actions which met the criteria for accrual.

Whipshots Agreements

In 2021, Whipshots LLC entered into an Intellectual Property Purchase Agreement with Penguins Fly, LLC, under which it acquired trademarks, domains, social media handles, and other assets related to Whipshots® and Whipshotz®. The purchase price is based on a sliding-scale percentage of gross revenue from Whipshots® and Whipshotz® product sales, payable over seven years. Amounts incurred under this agreement are recorded as indefinite-lived intangible assets. The carrying amount of the related indefinite-lived intangible asset was $505,404 as of both September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

Whipshots Holdings, LLC also entered into a License Agreement with Washpoppin Inc. in 2021, licensing certain intellectual property of artist Cardi B for product promotion and brand collaboration. An amended agreement, effective November 27, 2023, formalized promotional obligations and established a minimum aggregate royalty payment of $3.3 million. The amendment also accelerated the vesting of equity for Washpoppin, resulting in equity-based compensation expense of $8.63 million in 2023. The Company did not incur expenses related to this agreement during the nine months ended September 30, 2026 or the year ended December 31, 2025.

Sklyar License Agreement – Blue UTA-I LLC (Leah Kateb)

Effective July 1, 2025, Skylar entered into a license agreement with BlueUTA – I LLC ("BlueUTA"), granting Skylar the right to use the likeness and trademarks of artist Leah Kateb for commercial purposes, marketing, promotion, advertising, distribution, and sale of specified products. The agreement is effective through June 30, 2029, unless terminated earlier. Under the agreement, Skylar is obligated to pay BlueUTA base compensation of $240,000 annually, payable in monthly installments of $20,000, which will be recognized as license expense over the term of the agreement. Skylar will also pay royalties at a rate of 4 percent on annual net sales exceeding $11 million. These royalties will be recognized as variable expenses and accrued when probable and reasonably estimable. During the 3 and 9 months ended September 30, 2026, approximately $78 thousand was expensed and paid under these revenue-based royalties. No royalties were accrued as of September 30, 2026 or December 31, 2025.

Skylar issued 3,000 Class B units to BlueUTA, representing a 30 percent ownership interest in Skylar. These units are non-voting, subject to time-based and performance-based vesting conditions and were issued for past and future services. The units are intended to qualify as profits interests under IRS Revenue Procedures 93-27 and 2001-43 and are subject to a distribution threshold. Compensation expense related to these units will be recognized over the requisite service period. The Company recognized compensation expense related to these units of approximately $120,882 and $483,242 for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively, and approximately $502,516 and $483,242 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

The agreement also provides for bonus compensation ranging from $400,000 to $600,000 annually for three years following the agreement term, contingent upon the achievement of specified net sales thresholds. These amounts will be recognized when achievement becomes probable and reasonably estimable. In addition, the Company granted BlueUTA stock options under the Starco Brands 2023 Equity Incentive Plan for up to 2 million shares of common stock, vesting in equal monthly installments over four years. The fair value of these options was measured at the grant date and will be recognized as expense over the vesting period. Compensation expense recognized during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 was $2,564 and $7,692, respectively, and unrecognized compensation cost as of September 30, 2026 was $29,059, which will be recognized over the remaining vesting period of approximately 2.75 years.

Royalties and Minimum Guarantees

The Company has licensing agreements that include minimum guaranteed royalty payments. When no performance obligations remain with the licensor, minimum guarantees are recorded as both an asset and a liability at the contractual amount. When performance obligations remain, amounts are recorded as assets when paid and liabilities when incurred. Minimum contractual royalty-based obligations as of September 30, 2026 are approximately $20,000 for each of the years ending December 31, 2026, 2027, and 2028. Additional information regarding royalty-based assets and liabilities is included in Note 3.

General Commitments

The Company enters into various contracts in the normal course of business, including agreements for manufacturing, licensing, marketing, distribution, and other operational activities. These agreements may include minimum purchase requirements, royalty obligations, or other future payment commitments. Such arrangements are typical for the Company's industry and are generally short-term or cancelable without significant penalty. As of September 30, 2026, management does not believe these commitments, individually or in the aggregate, will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

In addition to the specific agreements described below, the Company is party to other routine commercial contracts that do not meet the criteria for recognition on the consolidated balance sheets under U.S. GAAP. Future obligations under these arrangements will be recognized as expenses in the periods in which the related goods or services are received.

Letter of Intent – Starco Group

On July 29, 2025, the Company announced the execution of a non-binding exclusive Letter of Intent to acquire its contract manufacturers, collectively referred to as The Starco Group. The Starco Group operates three U.S. manufacturing facilities focused on personal care, household, food, and beverage products. NOTE 9 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Notes Payable - Ross Sklar (Chief Executive Officer)

On August 11, 2023, the Company issued a Consolidated Secured Promissory Note to Ross Sklar in the principal amount of $4,000,000, consolidating several prior notes (the Consolidated Secured Note). The Consolidated Secured Note bore interest at the Wall Street Journal Prime Rate plus 2 percent, reassessed monthly, and was secured by substantially all assets of the Company pursuant to an Amended and Restated Consolidated Security Agreement, dated August 11, 2023. On May 31, 2024, the Company and Mr. Sklar entered into an amendment extending the maturity date of the Consolidated Note to August 31, 2026, with an automatic extension to August 31, 2027 if amounts remain outstanding at maturity. The restructuring was accounted for as a debt modification.

During 2024, the Company repaid $1,527,500 of principal under the Consolidated Secured Note using proceeds from the Gibraltar Loan. As of December 31, 2024, the outstanding principal balance under the Consolidated Secured Note was $2,472,500, with no accrued interest outstanding.

On August 13, 2025, the Company and Mr. Sklar entered into a Second Amendment to the Consolidated Secured Note. The Second Amendment consolidated two additional loans made by Mr. Sklar to the Company in the aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000, consisting of a $500,000 loan funded on July 15, 2025 and a $500,000 loan funded on August 15, 2025. After giving effect to these additional loans and prior repayments, the principal balance under the Consolidated Secured Note was adjusted to $3,472,500. The Second Amendment reaffirmed that the Consolidated Secured Note remained subject to that Subordination Agreement, dated May 24, 2024 between Mr. Sklar and Gibraltar Business Capital, LLC. Except as modified by the Second Amendment, all other terms of the Consolidated Secured Note, including interest rate, repayment provisions, and maturity, remained unchanged.

On July 15, 2026, in connection with the Pasadena Private Lending facility and the required subordination of the Company's indebtedness to its Chief Executive Officer, the Company amended and restated the Consolidated Secured Note into an Amended and Restated Secured Convertible Promissory Note in the same principal amount of $3,472,500 (the "Restated Note"). The Restated Note bears interest at the Wall Street Journal Prime Rate plus 2.00% per annum, matures March 31, 2030, is subordinated to the Pasadena Private Lending facility, and is convertible, at the holder's option, into shares of the Company's Class A common stock at a conversion price of $0.04 per share. The amendment and restatement was accounted for as an extinguishment of debt with a related party (see Note 6 – Notes Payable).

As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the outstanding principal balance owed to Mr. Sklar under the Consolidated Secured Note and, from July 15, 2026, the Restated Note was $3,472,500 as of both dates. Business Overview

Starco Brands, Inc. (formerly Insynergy Products, Inc.), which we refer to as "the Company," "our Company," "STCB", "we," "us" or "our," was incorporated in the State of Nevada on January 26, 2010 under the name Insynergy, Inc. On September 7, 2017, the Company filed an Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation to change the corporate name to Starco Brands, Inc. The Board determined the change of the Company's name was in the best interests of the Company due to changes in our current and anticipated business operations at that time. In July 2017, the Company entered into a licensing agreement with TSG, a related party entity, located in Los Angeles, California. TSG is a private label and branded aerosol and liquid fill manufacturer with manufacturing assets in the following verticals: DIY/Hardware, paints, coatings and adhesives, household, hair care, disinfectants, automotive, motorcycle, arts & crafts, personal care cosmetics, personal care FDA, sun care, food, cooking oils, beverages, and spirits and wine. Upon entering into the licensing agreement with TSG, the Company pivoted to commercializing novel consumer products manufactured by TSG.

In 2022, the Company embarked on a strategy to grow its consumer product line offerings through the acquisition of multiple subsidiaries with established behavior changing products and brands. With an increased product line and its existing partner relationships, the Company has continued expanding its vertical and consumer base.

Executive Overview

In July 2017, our Board entered into a licensing agreement with TSG to pursue a new strategic marketing plan involving commercializing leading edge products with the intent to sell them through brick and mortar and online retailers. We are a company whose mission is to create behavior-changing products and brands. Our core competency is inventing brands, marketing, building trends, pushing awareness and social marketing. The licensing agreement with TSG provided STCB with certain products on an exclusive and royalty-free basis and other products on a non-exclusive and royalty basis, in the categories of food, household cleaning, air care, spirits and personal care.

The current CEO and owner of TSG, Ross Sklar, was named the CEO of STCB in August of 2017. Mr. Sklar has spent his career commercializing technology in industrial and consumer markets. Mr. Sklar has built teams of manufacturing personnel, research and development, and sales and marketing professionals over the last 20 years and has grown TSG into a successful and diversified manufacturer supplying a wide range of products to some of the largest retailers in the United States. As the Company continues to grow the number of products and brands under the STCB umbrella, it will continue to leverage its relationship with TSG to streamline its product manufacturing.

The Winona line of products is sold in Walmart, H-E-B, Meijer and Food Lion grocery stores, among other retailers. STCB also offers the Winona Popcorn Spray line on Amazon through our strategic partner Pattern (formally iServe), who is a stockholder in STCB.

Whipshots®

Whipshots® is currently distributed in 47 of 50 states. Whipshots® and Whipshotz® Trademarks

On September 8, 2021, Whipshots LLC, an indirect subsidiary of the Company, entered into an Intellectual Property Purchase Agreement, effective August 24, 2021, with Penguins Fly, LLC, a Pennsylvania limited liability company ("Seller"). The agreement provided that the Seller would sell the trademarks "Whipshotz" and "Whipshots", the accompanying domain and social media handles of the same nomenclature, and certain intellectual property, documents, digital assets, customer data and other transferable rights under non-disclosure, non-compete, non-solicitation and confidentiality contracts benefiting the purchased intellectual property and documents (collectively, the "Acquired Assets") to Whipshots LLC. Distribution Agreements

In November of 2021, we entered into separate distribution agreements (each a "Distribution Agreement" and, collectively, the "Distribution Agreements") with each of (i) National Distributing Company, Inc., a Georgia corporation, (ii) Republic National Distributing Company, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, and (iii) Young's Market Company, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (each a "Distributor" and, collectively, the "Distributors") each with an effective date as of November 1, 2021. Pursuant to the Distribution Agreements, the Distributors will act as the exclusive distributor for STCB in the Territories set forth on Exhibit B for the Products set forth on Exhibit A, to each such Distribution Agreement, as amended from time to time. The Distribution Agreements cover 47 U.S. States and the District of Columbia.

Pursuant to the terms of the Distribution Agreements, the Distributors serve as the exclusive distributors in such Territories for Whipshots®. The Distribution Agreements provide the Distributors with the rights to expand the Territories and Products covered under each such Distribution Agreement as we expand our product lines and distribution channels. The expansion of Territories and Products may be exercised under various rights, including rights of first refusal to serve as an exclusive distributor of new Products in new Territories. The Company has also agreed to grant the Distributors "most favored nations" pricing providing for the lowest price available across the United States and its territories and possessions (the "US Territory"), and to grant Distributors any volume or other discounts that are offered to any other distributor in the US Territory by us, provided such action is not a violation of applicable law.

Broker Agreements

In November of 2021, we entered into separate Broker Agreements (each a "Broker Agreement" and, collectively, the "Broker Agreements") with both Republic National Distributing Company, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, and Young's Market Company, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (each a "Broker" and, collectively, the "Brokers") each with an effective date as of November 1, 2021. Pursuant to the Broker Agreements, the Broker acts as the exclusive broker for us in the Territories set forth on Exhibit B for the Products set forth on Exhibit A, to each such Broker Agreement, as amended from time to time. Each Broker will receive a commission rate of 10%. The foregoing Broker Agreements now cover 9 U.S. States.

Competition

The household, personal care and beverage consumer products market in the U.S. is mature and highly competitive. Our competitive set has grown with our recent acquisitions and consists of consumer products companies, including large and well-established multinational companies as well as smaller regional and local companies. These competitors include Johnson & Johnson, The Procter & Gamble Company, Unilever, Diageo, CytoSport, Inc., Abbott Nutrition, Nestlé, Owyn, Clean Reserve, The 7 Virtues and others. Within each product category, most of our products compete with other widely advertised brands and store brand products.

Competition in our product categories is based on a number of factors including price, quality and brand recognition. We benefit from the strength of our brands, a differentiated portfolio of quality branded and store brand products, as well as significant capital investment in our manufacturing facilities. We believe the strong recognition of the Whipshots® and Soylent® brands among U.S. consumers, along with the growing brand recognition of Skylar®, gives us a competitive advantage.

Growth Strategy

As long as the Company can raise capital, the Company plans to launch other products in spray foods and condiments, over the counter respiratory, air care, skin care, sun care, hair care, personal care, pain management, performance supplements, plant-based convenience shakes, powders and bars, apparel, fragrances, spirits and beverages over the next 36 months. Financing growth and launching of new products through our key subsidiaries is key to the Company's ability to raise further capital.

To support this strategy, the Company continues to pursue strategic partnerships and acquisitions. In July 2025, our indirect subsidiary Skylar entered into a license agreement with BlueUTA-I LLC, granting rights to the likeness and trademarks of artist Leah Kateb for use in commercial products. This agreement includes base and royalty compensation, equity grants, and stock options, and is expected to enhance brand visibility and drive product innovation across multiple categories.

Additionally, on July 29, 2025, the Company executed a non-binding exclusive Letter of Intent to acquire its contract manufacturers, collectively referred to as The Starco Group. This proposed transaction is expected to provide greater scale and margin efficiency through vertical integration and would result in the Company being renamed "STARCO," with two primary operating subsidiaries. We have not acquired the contract manufacturers as of this Report, however, on July 2, 2026 the Company formed Starco Manufacturing, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company ("Manufacturing Holdco"), and on July 6, 2026, the Company formed Starco Brands, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company ("Brands Holdco" and together with Manufacturing Holdco, the "Holdcos"). On July 15, 2026, Manufacturing Holdco completed the Custom Foods Acquisition (see Note 5 – Acquisitions).

We will need to rely on sales of our Class A common stock and other sources of financing to raise additional capital. The purchases and manner of any share issuance will be determined according to our financial needs and the available exemptions to the registration requirements of the Securities Act. This provides significant support for our current retail and online distribution. We also plan to raise capital in the future through a compliant offering.

We remain committed to establishing ourselves as a premier brand owner and third-party marketer of innovative, cutting-edge technologies within the consumer products marketplace, with the ultimate goal of driving success and enhancing stockholder value. The Company will continue to evaluate its opportunities to further set the strategy for 2027 and beyond.

Revenues

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, we recorded revenues of $14,040,216 compared to $10,912,920 for the three months ended September 30, 2025, an increase of $3,127,296 or 29%. The increase was primarily due to revenues of $5,770,450 from Custom Foods, which was acquired on July 15, 2026, and increased sales of Skylar, partially offset by decreases in sales of Soylent due to an inability to receive product from its primary supplier.

Revenues, related parties

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, we recorded related party revenues of $226,256 compared to $726,407 for the three months ended September 30, 2025, a decrease of $500,151 or 69%. This decline was due to declines in sales of Whipshots due to continued softening in the spirits market.

Segment Revenue Results

The following discussion provides additional detail on segment-level revenue performance for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025.

Soylent. Soylent revenues were $2,441,120 for the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $6,148,121 for the three months ended September 30, 2025. The change was primarily attributable to an inability to receive product from its primary supplier.

Skylar. Skylar revenues were $4,896,574 for the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $3,432,611 for the three months ended September 30, 2025. The increase was primarily due to the success of our marketing initiatives and new product rollouts.

Whipshots. Whipshots related-party revenues were $226,256 for the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $726,407 for the three months ended September 30, 2025. The change reflects continuing softening in the spirits market.

Winona. Winona revenues were $903,495 for the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $1,157,551 for the three months ended September 30, 2025.

AOS. AOS revenues were $28,577 for the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $174,637 for the three months ended September 30, 2025. The declines in AOS's sales continue to be impacted by changes to the division's go-to-market strategy in the current year.

Starco Manufacturing. Starco Manufacturing revenues were $5,770,450 for the period from July 15, 2026 through September 30, 2026, reflecting the results of Custom Foods from the date of acquisition. There were no Starco Manufacturing revenues in the prior-year period.

Operating Expenses

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, our compensation expense amounted to $1,734,958, reflecting a decrease of $372,455 or 18%, compared to $2,107,413 for the three months ended September 30, 2025. Compensation expense for the current period includes $419,969 at Custom Foods from the date of acquisition. The increase from inclusion of Custom Foods was more than offset by a $668,603 reduction in stock based compensation in addition to the impact of personnel reductions over the past year.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, our professional fees totaled $355,728, representing a decrease of $145,203 or 29%, compared to $500,931 in the prior period. Professional fees are mainly for contractors, accounting, auditing and legal services associated with business operations, merger activity, and our quarterly filings as a public company, and advisory and valuation services. Professional fees for the current period include $136,349 at Custom Foods from the date of acquisition. The overall reduction reflects reductions of legal, third party accounting and valuation expenses in the quarter.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, our marketing, general and administrative expenses were $3,016,516, reflecting a decrease of $104,911 or 3%, compared to $3,121,427 for the three months ended September 30, 2025. Marketing, general and administrative expenses for the current period include $223,238 at Custom Foods from the date of acquisition. Marketing expense increase from promoting Skylar's new products were more than offset by cost reductions across the other spending categories as the company's cost reduction efforts have borne out.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, we incurred transaction costs of $485,609 related to the Custom Foods Acquisition. There were no transaction costs in the prior-year period.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, we recognized a fair value loss of $31,000 on the remeasurement of the contingent consideration related to the Custom Foods Acquisition. There was no comparable loss in the prior-year period.

Other Expense

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, we had total other expense of $2,095,832 compared to total other expense of $289,452 for the three months ended September 30, 2025. For the three months ended September 30, 2026, the Company had interest expense of $477,611, including $33,637 of amortization of debt issuance costs, compared to interest expense of $283,066 during the same period in 2025; the Company also had other expense of $1,618,221 for the three months ended September 30, 2026 as compared to other expense of $6,386 during the same period in 2025. The increase in interest expense reflects the Company's higher borrowings year over year, including the amounts used to fund the Custom Foods Acquisition. The increase in other expense reflects a $1.6 million charge for the settlement of a contract.

Net Loss

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, we reported a net loss of $2,502,000, compared to a net loss of $1,387,811 for the same period in 2025. The increase in net loss was primarily driven by higher other expense and interest expense, partially offset by a lower loss from operations.

Revenues

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we recorded revenues of $30,855,526 compared to $31,317,798 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, a decrease of $462,272 or 1%. The decrease was primarily due to decreases in sales of Soylent due to an inability to receive product from its primary supplier, partially offset by revenues of $5,770,450 from Custom Foods and increased sales of Skylar.

Revenues, related parties

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we recorded related party revenues of $739,166 compared to $2,198,098 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, a decrease of $1,458,932 or 66%. This decline was due to declines in sales of Whipshots due to continued softening in the spirits market.

Segment Revenue Results

The following discussion provides additional details on segment-level revenue performance for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025.

Soylent. Soylent revenues were $9,816,322 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $20,157,201 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The change was primarily attributable to an inability to receive product from its primary supplier.

Skylar. Skylar revenues were $12,054,245 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $7,291,678 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The increase was primarily due to the success of our marketing initiatives and new product rollouts.

Whipshots. Whipshots related-party revenues were $739,166 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $2,198,098 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease was primarily due to continuing softening in the spirits market.

Winona. Winona revenues were $3,131,177 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $3,148,745 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025.

AOS. AOS revenues were $83,332 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $720,174 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease was primarily attributable to sales associated with a product launch in 2025 that did not recur in 2026 and changes to AOS's go-to-market strategy during the year.

Starco Manufacturing. Starco Manufacturing revenues were $5,770,450 for the period from July 15, 2026 through September 30, 2026, reflecting the results of Custom Foods from the date of acquisition. There were no Starco Manufacturing revenues in the prior-year period.

Operating Expenses

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, our compensation expense amounted to $5,314,395, reflecting a decrease of $191,177 or 3%, compared to $5,505,572 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, our professional fees totaled $1,625,686, representing a decrease of $567,396 or 26%, compared to $2,193,082 in the prior period. The decrease is primarily due to a reduction in outsourced accounting fees as we transitioned the function to internal employees in the second half of last year and decreased legal and audit and valuation fees in the current year.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, our marketing, general and administrative expenses were $7,598,260, reflecting a decrease of $2,101,474 or 22%, compared to $9,699,734 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease primarily reflects lower amortization expense following the write-offs of intangible assets at our Soylent subsidiary at December 31, 2025, reduced broker commissions and marketing support costs at Soylent and AOS, and reduced borrower fees due to our year end refinancing, partially offset by increased marketing spend at Skylar.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, there was no fair value share adjustment gain. For the nine months ended September 30, 2025, the Company recognized a change in fair value share adjustment gain of $3,692,529 due to a decrease in the fair value of the Soylent sellers' rights to potentially receive additional Starco shares, the final settlement of which occurred in 2025.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we incurred transaction costs of $485,609 related to the Custom Foods Acquisition. There were no transaction costs in the prior-year period.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we recognized a fair value loss of $31,000 on the remeasurement of the contingent consideration related to the Custom Foods Acquisition. There was no comparable loss in the prior-year period.

Other Expense

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we had total other expense of $2,548,467 compared to total other expense of $1,342,978 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The increase in interest expense reflects the Company's higher borrowings year over year, including the amounts used to fund the Custom Foods Acquisition. The increase in other expense reflects a $1.6 million charge for the settlement of a contract.

Net Loss

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we reported a net loss of $4,793,354, compared to a net loss of $1,261,907 for the same period in 2025. The year-over-year change was primarily driven by the $3,692,529 fair value share adjustment gain recognized in the prior-year period, which did not recur in 2026, higher other expense and lower gross profit, partially offset by reduced operating expenses excluding that gain.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As reflected in the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements, we had an accumulated deficit of $107,072,932 as of September 30, 2026. Net cash provided by financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 was $12,831,531, primarily consisting of net proceeds of $13,290,185 from notes payable, including borrowings under the Pasadena Private Lending facility, partially offset by payments of $258,654 on notes payable and $200,000 on related-party notes payable. We used $2,376,389 of net cash in operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2026. Operating cash outflows were primarily driven by our net loss of $4,793,354, partially offset by non-cash adjustments, including $1,055,200 of amortization and $605,367 of stock-based compensation and by working-capital changes, including an increase in other payables and accrued liabilities of $1,544,680, offset by an increase in accounts receivable of $1,208,981. During the same period in 2025, our net cash used in operating activities was $1,176,857 compared to a net loss of $1,261,907 for the period, which included the $3,692,529 non-cash gain recognized during the period.

Notes Payable - Ross Sklar (Chief Executive Officer)

On August 11, 2023, the Company issued the Consolidated Secured Note to Ross Sklar in the principal amount of $4,000,000, consolidating several prior notes. The Consolidated Secured Note bore interest at the Wall Street Journal Prime Rate plus 2 percent, reassessed monthly, and was secured by substantially all of our assets pursuant to an Amended and Restated Consolidated Security Agreement, dated August 11, 2023. On May 31, 2024, we and Mr. Sklar entered into an amendment extending the maturity date of the Consolidated Secured Note to August 31, 2026, with an automatic extension to August 31, 2027 if amounts remain outstanding at maturity. The restructuring was accounted for as a debt modification.

During 2024, we repaid $1,527,500 of principal under the Consolidated Secured Note using proceeds from the Gibraltar Loan. As of December 31, 2024, the outstanding principal balance under the Consolidated Secured Note was $2,472,500, with no accrued interest outstanding.

On August 13, 2025, Mr. Sklar and we entered into a Second Amendment to the Consolidated Secured Note. The Second Amendment consolidated two additional loans made by Mr. Sklar to us in the aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000, consisting of a $500,000 loan funded on July 15, 2025 and a $500,000 loan funded on August 15, 2025. After giving effect to these additional loans and prior repayments, the principal balance under the Consolidated Secured Note was adjusted to $3,472,500. The Second Amendment reaffirmed that the Consolidated Secured Note remained subject to the Subordination Agreement dated May 24, 2024 between Mr. Sklar and Gibraltar Business Capital, LLC. Except as modified by the Second Amendment, all other terms of the Consolidated Secured Note, including interest rate, repayment provisions, and maturity, remained unchanged.

As of September 30, 2026, the outstanding principal balance owed to Mr. Sklar under the Consolidated Secured Note, as amended and restated by the Restated Note, was $3,472,500. Interest expense related to notes held by Mr. Sklar was $90,770 and $79,774 for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively, and $263,483 and $200,479 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively. On July 15, 2026, in connection with the Pasadena Private Lending facility, the Consolidated Secured Note was amended and restated into a secured convertible promissory note in the same principal amount, convertible at the holder's option into Class A common stock at $0.04 per share, maturing March 31, 2030 and subordinated to the Pasadena Private Lending facility (the "Restated Note"). See Note 9 – Related Party Transactions.

Related Party Bridge Loan – The Starco Group, Inc.

On December 22, 2025, we entered into the Bridge Loan with TSGI, a company wholly-owned by Ross Sklar, the Company's Chief Executive Officer. The Bridge Loan provides for a bridge term loan of up to $5,000,000, including an initial disbursement of $4,500,000 and additional delayed drawdowns of up to $500,000 through December 31, 2026. The initial proceeds were used to repay our outstanding obligations under the Gibraltar Loan and to support working capital needs.

The Bridge Loan bears interest at the lesser of (i) the Highest Lawful Rate or (ii) the Prime Rate (not less than 6.00 percent) plus 4.25 percent. Interest is payable monthly beginning January 1, 2026. Principal payments begin January 1, 2027 and continue through 2030, with scheduled monthly payments ranging from $28,000 to $66,000. We may prepay the Bridge Loan at any time without penalty. The Bridge Loan matures on the earlier of (i) five years from issuance, (ii) acceleration upon default, or (iii) full repayment.

As of September 30, 2026, the outstanding principal balance under the Bridge Loan was $4,300,000, and interest expense related to the loan was $166,824 and $0 for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively, and $388,199 and $0 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively. In July 2026, the Bridge Loan was subordinated to the Pasadena Private Lending facility.

Pasadena Private Lending Credit Facility

On July 15, 2026, we entered into the Pasadena Private Lending facility, which provides for an $11.0 million initial term loan, a $4.0 million accordion term-loan feature and a $3.0 million revolving line of credit, is secured by substantially all of our assets and is guaranteed by our Chief Executive Officer and certain family trusts. As of September 30, 2026, outstanding borrowings under the facility were $12,931,521 net of unamortized debt issuance costs. The facility contains financial covenants, including a maximum senior debt-to-EBITDA ratio of 3.00 to 1.00 and a minimum fixed-charge coverage ratio of 2.00 to 1.00, tested quarterly.

Going Concern

We have concluded that substantial doubt exists about our ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date the condensed consolidated financial statements are issued. The principal conditions giving rise to substantial doubt include our history of recurring net losses. As of September 30, 2026, we had an accumulated deficit of $107,072,932, including net losses of $2,502,000 and $4,793,354 for the three and nine months then ended, and working capital of approximately $2.4 million.

Management has evaluated the factors contributing to these conditions. Our historical net losses and accumulated deficit are primarily attributable to non-cash or one-time, non-recurring expenses, including goodwill impairment, stock-based compensation, fair value share adjustment losses, and acquisition-related transaction costs.

As of September 30, 2026, our total debt was $20,928,993, net of unamortized debt issuance costs, consisting of borrowings under the Pasadena Private Lending facility ($12,931,521, representing principal of $13,700,000 net of unamortized debt issuance costs of $768,479), $3,472,500 under the Restated Note held by our CEO, Ross Sklar, $4,300,000 outstanding under the Bridge Loan and $224,972 of insurance loans. Mr. Sklar holds a significant minority ownership interest, is the Company's CEO and a member of the Board, and historically, certain notes payable to him have been extended or refinanced; however, there can be no assurance that such extensions or refinancings will continue in the future.

To address the conditions giving rise to substantial doubt, management intends to pursue additional financing sources to enhance liquidity, provide working capital, and support repayment of existing obligations, if necessary. Management also continues to implement strategic initiatives to increase revenue in our most profitable sales channels and reduce overall expenses as a percentage of revenue. Improvements to date have resulted, and are expected to continue to result, from operational synergies achieved through our shared services model and our focus on profitable sales channels.

Despite these plans, the conditions described above continue to raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. The condensed consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of these uncertainties.

Working Capital

	September 30, 2026	December 31, 2025
Current assets	$ 20,282,899	$ 11,899,737
Current liabilities	(17,892,658)	(13,285,278)
Working capital (deficiency)	$ 2,390,241	$ (1,385,541)

The increase in current assets is primarily due to increases in inventory of $3,087,459, accounts receivable of $2,512,017, cash of $2,455,017 and prepaid expenses and other assets of $328,669, reflecting in part the current assets acquired in the Custom Foods Acquisition. The increase in current liabilities is primarily the result of an increase in other payables and accrued liabilities of $2,175,800, an increase in accounts payable of $1,783,835, an increase in the current portion of lease liabilities of $383,265, an increase in related-party accounts payable of $221,315 and an increase in notes payable - current of $111,814, partially offset by a decrease in related-party other payables and accrued liabilities of $68,649.

Cash Flows

	Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2026	2025
Net cash used in operating activities	$ (2,376,389)	$ (1,176,857)
Net cash used in investing activities	(8,000,125)	(132,950)
Net cash provided by financing activities	12,831,531	1,568,395
Increase in cash	$ 2,455,017	$ 258,588

Operating Activities

Net cash used in operating activities was $2,376,389 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to net cash used of $1,176,857 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, an increase in cash used of $1,199,532. The increase was primarily attributable to a net loss of $4,793,354 in the current period, compared to a net loss of $1,261,907 in the prior-year period, which in the prior year included a $3,692,529 non-cash gain on the stock payable share adjustment.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, net loss of $4,793,354 was adjusted for non-cash items, including amortization of intangible assets of $1,055,200, stock-based compensation of $605,367, depreciation of $34,766, amortization of debt issuance costs of $33,637, and the fair value loss on contingent consideration of $31,000.

Amortization expense decreased approximately $1,087,000 compared to the prior-year period, primarily due to the impairment of certain Soylent intangible assets recognized in 2025, which reduced the remaining amortizable basis of those assets.

Changes in operating assets and liabilities provided net cash of approximately $656,995 during the nine months ended September 30, 2026. This was primarily driven by increases in other payables and accrued liabilities of $1,544,680, related-party accounts payable of $221,315 and accounts payable of $125,975 and decreases in the operating lease right-of-use asset of $143,371, and prepaid expenses and other assets of 28,489, offset by increases in accounts receivable of $1,208,981 and inventory of $124,862, and decreases in related-party other payables and accrued liabilities of $68,649 and operating lease liability of $4,343.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was $8,000,125 for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, consisting of cash paid for the Custom Foods Acquisition, net of cash acquired.

Net cash used in investing activities was $132,950 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and was due to the purchase of property and equipment and intangibles.

Financing Activities

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, net cash provided by financing activities was $12,831,531, consisting of net proceeds of $13,290,185 from notes payable, partially offset by payments of $258,654 on notes payable and $200,000 on related-party notes payable.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2025, net cash provided by financing activities was $1,568,395, which includes $1,000,000 of proceeds from related-party notes payable, net proceeds of $364,258 on the revolving loan and net proceeds of $204,137 on notes payable.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have not entered into any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources and would be considered material to investors.

Effects of Inflation

Inflationary factors such as increases in the costs to acquire goods and overhead costs may adversely affect our operating results. Although we do not believe that inflation has had a material impact on our financial position or results of operations to date, a high rate of inflation in the future may have an adverse effect on our ability to maintain current levels of gross margin and selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues if the selling prices of our services do not increase with these increased costs.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with US GAAP. The preparation of our condensed consolidated financial statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, costs, expense and related disclosures. These estimates and assumptions are often based on historical experience and judgements that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances at the time made. However, all such estimates and assumptions are inherently uncertain and unpredictable, and actual results may differ. It is possible that other professionals, applying their own judgement to the same facts and circumstances, could develop and support alternative estimates and assumptions that could result in material changes to our operating results and financial condition. We evaluate our estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis.

We consider our critical accounting estimates to include the assumptions and estimates associated with timing for revenue recognition, testing of goodwill and intangibles for impairment, recoverability of long-lived assets, estimating the allowance for doubtful accounts, determining the net realizable value of inventory, assessing the value of certain share-based adjustments, income taxes, fair value of contributed services, and assumptions used in the Black-Scholes valuation methods, such as expected volatility, risk-free interest rate and expected dividend rate. Our significant accounting policies are more fully described in the notes to our condensed consolidated financial statements. We believe that the following accounting policies and estimates are critical to our business operations and understanding our financial results.

Acquisition Accounting

We account for acquisitions in accordance with the acquisition method of accounting pursuant to ASC 805, Business Combinations. Accordingly, for each acquisition, we record the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the acquisition date and recognize the excess of the consideration paid over the fair value of the net assets acquired as goodwill. For each acquisition, the fair value of assets acquired, and liabilities assumed is determined based on assumptions that reasonable market participants would use to value the assets in the principal (or most advantageous) market.

In determining the fair value of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in connection with acquisitions, management engages third-party valuation experts. Management is responsible for these internal and third-party valuations and appraisals.

Revenue Recognition

STCB, excluding its subsidiaries, earns a majority of its revenues through the sale of food products, primarily through Winona. Revenue from retail sales is recognized at shipment to the retailer.

AOS, one of STCB's indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, earns its revenues through the sale of premium body and skincare products. Revenue from retail sales is recognized at shipment to the retailer. Revenue from eCommerce sales, including Amazon Fulfillment by Amazon ("Amazon FBA"), is recognized upon shipment of merchandise or FOB destination.

Skylar, one of STCB's indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, earns its revenues through the sale of fragrances. Revenue from retail sales is recognized at shipment to the retailer. Revenue from eCommerce sales, including Amazon FBA, is recognized either upon shipment of merchandise or FOB destination.

Soylent, one of STCB's indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, earns its revenues through the sale of nutritional drinks. Revenue from retail sales is recognized at shipment to the retailer. Revenue from eCommerce sales, is recognized upon shipment of merchandise.

Whipshots Holdings, an indirect 85% owned subsidiary, earns its revenues as royalties from the licensing agreements it has with Temperance, a related entity. STCB licenses the right for Temperance to manufacture and sell vodka infused whipped cream. The amount of the licensing revenue received varies depending upon the product and the royalty percentage is based on contractual terms. The Company recognizes its revenue under these licensing agreements only when sales are made by Temperance to a third party.

Custom Foods recognizes revenue when its finished goods products are shipped to customers.

The Company applies the following five-step model in order to determine this amount: (i) identify the contract with a customer; (ii) identify the performance obligation in the contract; (iii) determine the transaction price, including the constraint on variable consideration; (iv) allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations; and (v) recognition of revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies each performance obligation.

The Company only applies the five-step model to contracts when it is probable that the entity will collect the consideration it is entitled to in exchange for the licensee transferring goods or services to the customer. Once a contract is determined to be within the scope of ASC 606 at contract inception, the Company reviews the contract to determine which performance obligations the Company's licensee must deliver and which of these performance obligations are distinct. The Company recognizes as revenues the amount of the transaction price that is allocated to the respective performance obligation when the performance obligation is satisfied or as it is satisfied. Generally, the Company's licensee's performance obligations are transferred to customers at a point in time, typically upon delivery.

Goodwill Impairment

Goodwill as of the acquisition date is measured as the excess of consideration transferred over the net of the acquisition date fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. While we use our best estimates and assumptions to accurately value assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the acquisition date, our estimates are inherently uncertain and subject to refinement.

We review goodwill for impairment at least annually or more frequently if indicators of impairment exist. Our goodwill impairment test may require the use of qualitative judgements and fair-value techniques, which are inherently subjective. Impairment loss, if any, is recorded when the fair value of goodwill is less than its carrying value for each reporting unit.

No impairment losses related to goodwill were recognized for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025.

Recoverability of Long-Lived Assets

We review intangible assets, property, equipment and software with finite lives for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset or asset group to future undiscounted cash flows that the asset or asset group is expected to generate. If assets are determined to be impaired, the impairment loss to be recognized equals the amount by which the carrying value of the asset or group of assets exceeds its fair value. Significant estimates include but are not limited to future expected cash flows, replacement cost and discount rates.

There were no impairment losses related to long-lived assets for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025.

Accounts Receivable

We measure accounts receivable at net realizable value. This value includes an appropriate allowance for credit losses to present the net amount expected to be collected on the financial asset. We calculate the allowance for credit losses based on available relevant information, in addition to historical loss information, the level of past-due accounts based on the contractual terms of the receivables, and our relationships with, and the economic status of, our partners and customers.

Inventory

Inventory consists of premium body and skincare products, fragrances and nutritional products. Inventory is measured and stated at average cost as of September 30, 2026. The value of inventories is reduced for excess and obsolete inventories. We monitor inventory to identify events that would require impairment due to obsolete inventory and adjust the value of inventory when required.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

We follow paragraph 825-10-50-10 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for disclosures about fair value of its financial instruments and paragraph 820-10-35-37 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("Paragraph 820-10-35-37") to measure the fair value of its financial instruments. Paragraph 820-10-35-37 establishes a framework for measuring fair value in accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. To increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements and related disclosures, Paragraph 820-10-35-37 establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three (3) broad levels. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs. The three (3) levels of fair value hierarchy defined by Paragraph 820-10-35-37 are described below:

Level 1: Quoted market prices available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date.
Level 2: Pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets included in Level 1, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date.
Level 3: Pricing inputs that are generally unobservable inputs and not corroborated by market data.

The carrying amount of our consolidated financial assets and liabilities, such as cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, prepaid expenses, and accrued expenses approximate their fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. Our notes payable approximate the fair value of such instruments based upon management's best estimate of interest rates that would be available to the Company for similar financial arrangements at September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

We may be required to contemplate the fair value of certain share-based adjustments, which require assumptions about market conditions, volatility and other relevant factors which are often obtained from third-party valuation firms. Significant changes to any unobservable input may result in a significant change in the fair value measurement.

Income Taxes

The Company follows Section 740-10-30 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the condensed consolidated financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the fiscal year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance to the extent management concludes it is more likely than not that the assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the fiscal years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the Statements of Income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company adopted section 740-10-25 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("Section 740-10-25") with regards to uncertainty income taxes. Section 740-10-25 addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the condensed consolidated financial statements. Under Section 740-10-25, the Company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the condensed consolidated financial statements from such a position should be measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent (50%) likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Section 740-10-25 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, accounting in interim periods and requires increased disclosures. The Company had no material adjustments to its liabilities for unrecognized income tax benefits according to the provisions of Section 740-10-25.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has implemented all new accounting pronouncements that are in effect. These pronouncements did not have any material impact on the condensed consolidated financial statements unless otherwise disclosed, and the Company does not believe that there are any other new accounting pronouncements that have been issued that might have a material impact on its condensed consolidated financial position or results of operations.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Not applicable as we are a "smaller reporting company."

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer, we have evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) and Rule 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act) and through the COSO 2013 framework as of the end of the period covered by this report. The disclosure controls and procedures ensure that all information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is: (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rule and forms; and (ii) accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Based on that evaluation, the Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer concluded that, as of September 30, 2026, these disclosure controls and procedures were not effective.

A material weakness, as defined in the standards established by the Sarbanes-Oxley, is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of our annual or interim condensed consolidated financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

The ineffectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting was due to the following material weaknesses:

- Lack of segregation of duties
- Lack of corporate documentation

Changes in Internal Controls over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the quarter ended September 30, 2026 that have materially affected, or reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
